General Data Protection Regulations

The West Riding Omnibus Museum Trust GDPR Policy;

Your personal data which includes any or all of the following: names and titles, postal addresses, phone numbers and email addresses, are collected and stored by the Membership Secretary and may be shared with any or all of the Trustees and Elected Officers of the Trust who are: The President, The Treasurer, The Secretary, The Events Organiser, plus other members of the Management Committee when a need arises. In addition, those members who belong to the Trust Management Committee will agree to their contact details being made available to other members of said Committee to ensure the efficient running of the Trust.

Postal addresses are used to ensure delivery of the Trust newsletter and this and other personal data collected, stored and shared in the way described above will be used to inform members of Trust events, activities and other aspects of the functions of the Trust. This personal data will not be made available to any other person without the express and explicit permission of the member concerned. Any member may have their personal data changed or removed at their request by contacting the Membership Secretary at the address detailed on this form. Removal of this data would result in said member not receiving their Trust newsletter, annual subscription reminder or any other ad-hoc communication issued to the Trust membership.

The personal data of any member who subsequently leaves the Trust for any reason will be removed from the list of such data.

By completing and sending off this form you confirm that you have read and understood the policy noted above. We now need your consent as to how we contact you. Please fill in ONLY those contact details WHICH YOU WOULD LIKE US TO USE TO CONTACT YOU when we wish to communicate with you
